

Friends of Stafford Civil War Sites
Stafford County Civil War Park Project Tour
Waiver of Liability

The likelihood of any injury during a visit to the Historic Sites located on Property owned by SONA Homes, Stafford County, and the Rappahannock Regional landfill is extremely low with no injuries reported over multiple visits. There are however, inherent dangers associated with hiking in undeveloped woodlands. Potential hazards may include exertion, tripping hazards, holes, wild animals, insects, low hanging branches etc. My signature on the attached page(s) signifies that I hereby assume all risks associated with my entry, and that of any underage minor's listed on page 2 of this form, as under my care, into and on property owned by SONA Homes, Stafford County and/or the Rappahannock Regional Landfill where the sites are located. I further agree, that should I, or any minor children under my care be injured, to hold SONA Homes Inc., Stafford County, the Rappahannock Regional Landfill, and the Friends of Stafford Civil War Sites Inc. both corporately and personally harmless from any and all claims of any nature whatsoever that might arise out of our entry to the aforementioned properties.

I understand entry permission is only for this specific site visit and good only for specific date of this letter. This permission automatically expires upon the end of this tour. I recognize that the area that I am about to visit contains sensitive historical sites and potentially historic artifacts.

I understand that anyone who enters this property and attempts to locate, and/or to remove artifacts from this property at any time without the express permission of the property owners will be prosecuted for trespassing and/or theft as applicable.
